

International Feng Shui Convention 2009
Singapore Management University
21 & 22 November 2009

Once again, our 6th International Feng Shui Convention has come to a beautiful closure. Situated in a brand new venue, the Singapore Management University, a whole new outlook has been set for our 2009 convention. We had 15 world renowned speakers and panelists partaking in this annual occasion, as well as our distinguished guest, Member of Parliament, Mr. Ang Mong Seng gracing us with his presence on this very special day.

This year's Master of Ceremony were two of GM Vincent Koh's outstanding students, Lim Eng Cheong and Anita Zou.

Eng Cheong & Anita

The official opening ceremony of the IFSC 2009 began as the President of International Feng Shui Association 2009; Mr. Darren Ng warmly welcomed our delegates and speakers. The ribbon cutting ceremony was witnessed by the Grandmasters and honorary members of IFSA.

IFSA President, Darren Ng

Lillian with MP Ang Mong Seng

This year IFSA conferred TWO new Grandmaster award: Lillian Too from Malaysia and Vincent Koh from Singapore for their contribution to Feng Shui locally and worldwide. Congratulations for both Grand Masters!

Vincent with MP Ang Mong Seng

Our chosen theme this year is Feng Shui Today - A Fusion of Traditional and Modern Practices.

We kicked start the convention with our keynote speech delivered by a dynamic individual acclaimed from Malaysia, the newly conferred Grand Master Lillian Too! She gave a thought-provoking address on this year's theme!

Next was Grand Master Tan Khoon Yong's take on the World Forecast for 2010. The prediction for next year was getting serious attention from our delegates, who were all very interested to know the economy condition and luck in general for next year.

GM Tan Khoon Yong

Lillian Too & Vincent Koh

We proceeded on with a very interactive debate between our two newly awarded grandmasters, Lillian Too & Vincent Koh. It was indeed a clash between the titans as our two experts engaged the audience with their lively discussion on Popular versus Academic Feng Shui.

Wang Xiao He, China

Raymond Lo, Hong Kong

Lillian Bridges, USA

After a filling lunch, Wang Xiao He, from China, started off with his speech, Qi Men Dun Jia and its relation to Feng Shui. From Hong Kong we had Grand Master Raymond Lo, who was next on our program. With his decades of Feng Shui experience, he gave us a fascinating elaboration on Four Pillars & Feng Shui CSI, in which he decoded the mysteries behind the deaths of many celebrities. For the first time this year, we invited Lillian Bridges, a well-known figure from the USA, to speak on her specialty, Face Reading & Feng Shui. The audiences were promptly captivated by her topic.

We wrapped up the first day's program with the panel discussion of five esteemed speakers: Lillian Bridges (USA), Jacek Kryg (Poland), Juliana Abram (Australia), Dr Mauro Rahardjo (Indonesia) and GM Yap Cheng Hai (Malaysia) with the topic: 'Medicine with Martial Arts & Feng Shui'. The speakers were all well versed in their chosen profession, which resulted in an interesting exchange of words across the stage.

Mas Kehardtham, Thailand

San-Zarni Bo, Myanmar

Dr. Hew Yon Long, Malaysia

On the second day, we had an array of other notable individuals namely Master Mas Kehardtham from Thailand, who was once again back on stage this year to impart more knowledge on Cosmic Trinity & the Complete Set of Theories for Feng Shui Systems. Next was Master San-Zarni Bo from Myanmar, who graciously delivered on Mahabote: the Burmese Astrology. Very spontaneously, he came up to the challenge when he was requested to do a live demonstration. Another newcomer, hailed from Malaysia is Dr Hew Yon Long, who captured the audience's attention with his groundbreaking concept of A New Branch of Zi Wei Dou Shu. With a dynamic presentation style, he gave a scientific explanation to share with the audience on his 19 years of hard work and research.

Next on the program was Master S.BS Surendran from India, who enlightened the audience with his knowledge on Indian science Vaastu Sastra: its application and its similarities with Feng Shui.

S.BS Surendran, India

Yap Boh Chu, Malaysia

Master Yap Boh Chu (Malaysia) once again returned on stage this year with his much anticipated topic: Modern Tools for the Traditional Art of Feng Shui, which was in line with this year's Feng Shui convention theme.

Our second panel discussion was held with GM Lillian Too(Malaysia), GM Raymond Lo(Hong Kong), GM Tan Khoon Yong(Singapore), GM Yap Cheng Hai(Malaysia) and Mas Kehardtham(Thailand) debating on the topic 'What Makes a Professional and Successful Feng Shui Master?'. Humorous yet informative, the audiences were kept wide alert as our speakers gave their opinions on the matter.

We ended on a high note, with all our delegates filled to the brim with valuable information on Feng Shui. Next year's convention will be held at another spanking brand new location - Resorts World at Sentosa, on 21 & 22 November 2010. For more information, do contact Li Shi at ong.li.shi@ttgasia.com. It would indeed be a convention worth partaking in and we look forward to seeing you once more!

We present to you our full team of guest speakers at the International Feng Shui Convention 2009

Bottom (L to R): Dr Mauro Rahardjo, Lillian Bridges, Juliana Abram, Jacek Kryg, Mas Kehardtham, Dr Hew
Yon Long, Wang Xiao He, S.BS Surendran, San-Zarni Bo, Yap Boh Chu
Top (L to R): GM Raymond Lo, GM Vincent Koh, GM Tan Khoon Yong, GM Lillian Too, GM Yap Cheng Hai, Darren Ng(President, IFSA)